GODDAMSELS release debut EP 'Wayward Daughter'

Based on their name alone, The Goddamsels aren't your grandparents' idea of country music. Formed out of the longstanding friendship between Alberta-based singer/songwriters Mallory Chipman and Frédrique "Freddi" MacDougall, The Goddamsels write songs with strong, empowering messages, blended with elements of folk, pop and traditional country, all tied together by their stunning, instinctive harmonies.

The Goddamsels explore sisterhood and friendship on debut CD

Friday, 12 August 2022 16:40 | Richard Amery

The Goddamsels are all about friendship.

The Edmonton meets Montreal alternative country duo will be playing the Slice, Wednesday, Aug. 17.

The duo, Montreal based Frédérique "Freddi" MacDougall and Mallory Chipman met while playing with the house band of popular Edmonton venue the Blue Chair, and found an instant connection.

MacDougall was playing with the band in 2011 and Chipman joined in 2015. They decided to form the Goddamsels in 2017, finding common inspiration in modern acts like First Aid Kit and country artists Linda Ronstadt, Dolly Parton and Emmy Lou Harris plus the Chicks.

"I also grew up listening to people like Lucinda Williams," she said.

MacDougall loves singing with Chipman. "It's great. It's a lot of fun. I love the way she can sing harmonies. She sings just the right harmony. She's so talented," said MacDougall from Montreal.

"Our voices blend so well together. She sings higher and my voice is lower," she said.

"For years people said they liked how our voices

SINGLES BAR 80 – A round-up of recent EPs and singles

Hailing from Edmonton and currently living on the indigenous communities of Treaty Six Territory & Unceded Kanien'kehà:ka Territory, Mallory Chipman and Frédrique "Freddi" MacDougall are the marvellously named THE GODDAMSELS making their debut with the Wayward Daughter EP (Royalty Records). Musically, they're rooted in old time country, as evidenced by the bouncy, fiddle-featuring title track with its catchy chorus, a long distance love song between friends, written by Chipman
